SHOCKWAVE - The Architect's Choice for Maximum Protection

ShockWave is built to last, with Crush-Resistant Memory that acts as a shock absorber, so backfill doesn't allow debris to harm the waterproofing membrane.

ShockWave Foundation System is a highly functional waterproofing solution that keeps water from touching the wall on its way from the environment to a drainage system. ShockWave is manufactured with multiple lines of defense against water. Unlike other drainage boards our Mar-flex silt fabric stops fine dirt particles from filling capillaries in ShockWave therefore allowing water to pass freely to the drainage tile.

The wave of the future

Mar-flex Waterproofing & Building Products develop products with industry-leading specs and unparalleled environmental benefits. Our ShockWave Drainage Boards are an integral component of a three-part Mar-flex turnkey system of waterproof membrane, drainage board, and drainage tile. For the architect's convenience, entire waterproofing projects can be easily specked out at Mar-flex.com.

Mar-flex green products

Mar-flex Green is our initiative for sustainable development and our ongoing effort to bring innovative solutions to the building industry.
